APPLICANTS HOLDING A FOREIGN UNIVERSITY DEGREE

1. Foreign applicants from outside the European Union and not resident in Italy holding a foreign degree must obtain a "Dichiarazione di Valore" of their degree and a notarised photocopy of the university transcripts from the relevant diplomatic Italian authority in the country where they graduated. Once obtained, the "Dichiarazione di Valore" must be forward to the Roma Tre University directly by the relevant Italian authority concerned.

2. EU applicants and non-EU applicants legally living in Italy holding a foreign degree must obtain a "Dichiarazione di Valore" of their degree and a notarised photocopy of the university transcripts from the relevant diplomatic Italian authority in the country where they graduated. Once obtained, they can submit the "Dichiarazione di Valore" directly with all the other documents requested for the admission.

Generally, the documents that must be presented to the relevant diplomatic Italian authority abroad in order to obtain the "Dichiarazione di Valore" include:

- The foreign degree on the basis of which the admission to the Italian programme is requested;
- A transcript (or any official university document) listing all the subject courses completed towards the foreign degree;
- The legal translations (i.e. sworn translations) into Italian of all documents written in any language other than Italian.

3. John Cabot Students graduated before May 2003 must obtain from the Italian Consulate in Philadelphia the "Dichiarazione di Valore" of their degree. This not applies for students graduated after this date.

Please note that the process in order to obtain the Certified Degree Equivalency (Dichiarazione di Valore) for foreign degree will take from 2 to 4 months.
